RESPONSIBILITY: Far Horizons Archaeological and Cultural Trips, Inc. In the event it becomes necessary or advisable for the comfort or well being of the passengers, for any reason whatsoever, to alter the itinerary or arrangements, such alterations may be made without penalty to the tour operators. Additional expenses, if any, shall be borne by the passengers. FH shall not be responsible for any injuries, losses or damages in connection with terrorist activities, social or labor unrest, mechanical or structural integrity of air, sea, and ground transportation and accommodations, diseases, local laws, travel industry bankruptcies, Acts of God, delays, changes or cancellation of travel due to weather conditions, hotel services, accidents or health related problems before or while in-transit to (e.g., an accident on the way to a tour), during, and after the tour, or any other actions, omissions, or conditions outside of FH control. Baggage is at owner's risk at all times. By registering for the tour, the registrant voluntarily assumes all risks involved in such travel, whether expected or unexpected. AIRLINE CLAUSE: The airlines are not to be held responsible for any act, omission or event during the time passengers are not on board their planes or conveyance. The passage contract in use by the airlines concerned, when issued, shall constitute the sole contract between the airlines and such purchasers of these tours and/or passenger. Such conveyance, etc. is subject to the laws of the countries involved.

NOTE ON AIR TICKETING: Be prepared to commit to travel dates as early as possible as flights book quickly. When a tour includes international flights from the United States, Far Horizons often contracts with an airline for the most cost effective and logistically desirable flights. Contracted group flights are normally confirmed at an advantageous rate, and in order to maintain this rate, air carriers require a minimum number of passengers in a group. If you issue your own international flight tickets, please send us the complete schedule as soon as you have it. If Far Horizons must change the trip dates or cancel the trip for any reason, Far Horizons is not responsible for any air ticket you may have purchased.

NOTE ON SINGLE SUPPLEMENT: I understand that Far Horizons will make every attempt to find a roommate when requested, but if one is not found that I will be charged the single supplement. Additionally, Far Horizons will make every effort to ensure that those registrants requesting a single room actually receive one but will not be responsible for single rooms not available upon arrival.
