INDIA: GUJARAT & RAJASTHAN

with Dr. Jenny Rose

Ahmedabad, Udaipur, Jodhpur, Jaisalmer, Khimsar, Pushkar, Jaipur, and ten UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

The states of Gujarat and Rajasthan, located on the western border of India, are rich in tribal arts, resplendent architecture, and ancient remains of the many civilizations that have crossed this land, including the Mughals who ruled much of India from the 16th to the 19th century. Along with various diverse and interesting cultures, a multitude of religions call this area home.

Far Horizons' 18-day journey includes ten breathtaking UNESCO World Heritage sites: Victoria Terminus, Victorian and Art Deco Ensemble, and Elephanta Cave in Mumbai; the ancient walled city of Ahmedabad; the dazzling Rani Ki Vav stepwell in Patan; magnificent Jaisalmer Fort; Amber Fort and the Jantar Mantar Observatory in the Pink City of Jaipur; and the imposing Red Fort and beautiful Tomb of Humayun in Delhi.

But there's more! See Gujarat's prehistoric Lothal, more than 4,000 years old. View Jain sanctuaries, Hindu temples, Sufi shrines, and glorious mosques. Walk through stunning royal palaces, ornately decorated step wells, and impressive fortresses towering over the countryside. Travel by bus, 4x4, and camel through the Great Thar Desert to see small traditional villages. And enjoy the vibrant local markets bursting with hand-woven carpets, traditional paintings, tie-dye fabrics, embroideries, appliqué work, and so much more.

Won't you join only 13 others for this truly unique sojourn?

Daily Itinerary

Depart for India

Depart on a flight bound for Mumbai, India.

Day 2

Arrive in Mumbai

Arrive in Bombay, today called Mumbai.

Overnight for two nights in the 5-star Trident Nariman Point Hotel with panoramic views over the Arabian Sea.

Day 3

Tour Mumbai, Elephanta Caves, Victoria Terminus

Enjoy an early morning stop to observe Mumbai's famous stone steps, or ghats, from a bridge overlooking the open-air troughs where, daily, 5,000 men wash the clothes of the people of Mumbai and manage to get them back to their rightful owners!

Next, travel by boat to the tranquil, forested island of Elephanta and its unique cave temple containing a massive Trimurti, or three-faced Shiva, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. A glorious example of Hindu architecture, the 8th-century cave is reached by climbing more than 100 steps to the top of the hill.

See the Gateway of India, a colossal structure overlooking the Mumbai harbor that was built in 1924 to commemorate the visit of King George V and Queen Mary before continuing to Chhatrapati Shivaji Terminus, formerly known as Victoria Terminus Station— a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Daily Itinerary (cont'd)

Day 4

Flight to Ahmedabad, Adalaj, Sabarmati Ashram, Hutheesing Jain Temple

This morning's flight takes us to the walled city of Ahmedabad, the main city in Gujarat state and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Founded in 1411 by Sultan Ahmad Shah, Ahmedabad is our base for the next three days.

We begin in Adalaj. Here, the 15th-century Ruda Step well was dug down to the water table to provide not only fresh water but also refreshing relief from the sweltering sun.

Next, visit Sabarmati Ashram, one of the residences of Mahatma Gandhi from 1915 to 1933 and now a museum in his honor.

Move on to the marble, two-storied Hutheesing Jain Temple with its elaborate façade decorated with intricately designed carvings and 52 shrines.

Overnight for three nights in Ahmedabad at the House of MG, built in 1924 as a home for a wealthy textile magnate and attractively refurbished to retain its old-world charm. (B/L/D)

Day 5

Heritage Walk - Old City, Jumah Mosque; Lothal

The old walled city of Ahmedabad is filled with many interesting historic buildings. Siddi Sayed Mosque is renowned for its stunning half-circle windows with intricately carved stone latticework called Jali. The Jumah Mosque, built in 1423 by the city's founder, is one of India's most beautiful.

Our afternoon excursion takes us to prehistoric Lothal, a major urban center of the Indus Valley settled and built about 4500 years ago. Foundations of this well-planned city are still evident, and the site's Archaeological Museum displays objects found there.

Dinner is on our own this evening. (B/L)

Day 6

Modhera Sun Temple, Patan, Rani Ki Vav

Spend the day outside Ahmedabad; we begin in Modhera. In addition to fascinating Jain temples and carved wooden houses, Modhera hosts the Sun Temple, built by Raja Bhima I in 1026 AD. This sanctuary is open to the sky, and its walls and pillars are lavishly ornamented with images of gods in a celestial hierarchy.

We also stop at Patan, an early capital of Gujarat and home of the famous Patola silk saris.

Our final stop is Rani Ki Vav, another magnificent stepwell and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Rani (Queen) Udayamati commissioned this intricately constructed vav, or stepwell, in 1063 in memory of her husband, King Bhima I of the Solanki dynasty.

Dinner is on our own this evening. (B/L)

Day 7

Rishabhdeo Jain Temple, Boat ride on Lake Pichola, Jag Mandir Island

We leave Ahmedabad and Gujarat and drive into Rajasthan state and to Rishabhdeo Temple, dedicated to Lord Rishabh Dev, the first Jain Tirthankara to have conquered the cycle of death and rebirth. Possibly dating back to the 9th century, it is one of the four main pilgrimages of the Jains.

Continue to the charming city of Udaipur, known for its ornate palaces and man-made lakes fringed by the lovely Aravalli Mountains beyond. We will enjoy a boat ride on Lake Pichola to gain an overview of the city and to see some of the most impressive historical monuments scattered along the lakeside: the City Palace is several palatial structures that were built over 400 years ago, the opulent mansions know as havelis, and the steps down to the water called ghats including impressive Gangaur Ghat with its three arches. We will also see Jag Mandir Island with its beautiful palace.

Overnight for two nights at the 5-star Hotel Fateh Garh, built on a hillside overlooking Udaipur. A designated Luxury Heritage Hotel, the elegant facilities offer royal splendor Rajasthani-style. (B/L/D)

Day 8

Udaipur: Mahakaleshwar Temple, Jagdish Temple, City Palace, Saheliyon Ki Baari, Ahar Cenotaphs

Our all-day city tour will be filled with memorable surprises. The enormous City Palace is a fusion of Rajasthani and Mughal architectural styles, and 76 generations of royalty have left their mark on this fortified edifice. Although still owned by the Mewar regal family, much of it is open to the public, and a portion is now a museum. Our explorations will take us through a splendid variety of courtyards, pavilions, terraces, living quarters, and luxuriant gardens, all enclosed by fortification walls, each more lavish and beautiful. Jagdish Temple is located within the City Palace complex. To reach it, we must climb a steep flight of steps through a colorful cacophony of chanting and the smell of incense.

Just outside the city, Ahar was where the rulers of Mewar were cremated and the location of their cenotaphs, or monuments, to honor them.

In the afternoon, we will enter Mahakaleshwar Temple, where hundreds of believers of Lord Shiva worship each day. If we are fortunate, we will be there when one of the prayer services is occurring and observe devotees anointing with aromatic oil Nandi the Bull, the gate-guardian deity of the abode of Lord Shiva, and the Lingam, an abstract representation of the deity Shiva. (B/L/D)

Transfer to Jodhpur, Ranakpur Temple

Depart early for our long drive from Udaipur to Jodhpur. Along the way, stop to observe the stunning Ranakpur Temple, one of the five major pilgrimage sites of the Jains. Constructed in the 15th century, the white marble complex has 29 halls, a multitude of domes, and pavilions supported by more than 1,000 pillars, each intricately engraved with figures of dancing goddesses.

Overnight for one night in the 5-star Radisson Hotel in Jodhpur. (B/L/D)

Day 10

Mehrangarh Fort, Osian, Transfer to Jaisalmer

Check out of the hotel early this morning and begin our explorations of the breathtaking sites in Jodhpur. Soaring 400 feet over the roofs of the town, the massive and impregnable Mehrangarh Fort is one of the largest and most impressive in India. The red sandstone stronghold, known as the Citadel of the Sun, is a glorious testimony of India's regal past and is still owned by the Jodhpur royal family. Famed for its beautiful architecture, exceptional craftsmanship is exhibited in the fascinating sandstone palaces enclosed within the walls. The museum in the fort contains a selection of old royal palanquins, including the elaborate domed gilt Mahadol palanquin, which was won in a battle by the Governor of Gujarat in 1730, along with weaponry, paintings, and decorated period rooms.

After our morning sightseeing, we depart for Jaisalmer, stopping in Osian, an ancient oasis city legendary for its Brahman and Jain temples. From the 8th to 11th centuries, the city was a prosperous trading center, and the wealth of the city is shown in its strikingly beautiful religious structures covered with elaborately carved figures of gods and goddesses.

Overnight for two nights in the 5-star Suryagarh Hotel in Jaisalmer, a truly opulent and unique getaway where the romance of India's sprawling Thar Desert comes alive. (B/L/D)

Day 11

Desert Culture Centre and Museum, Jaisalmer Fort, Chandraprabhu

Today, we explore this fascinating desert city. Begin at the Desert Culture Centre and Museum, which conveys the history of Rajasthan's princely states and has exhibits on traditional Rajasthani culture.

Next, explore Jaisalmer Fort, one of the largest fortifications in the world and where over 2,000 people still live and work inside its walls. A UNESCO World Heritage Site, the huge complex was created using gleaming golden sandstone, and three formidable defensive walls protect the labyrinth of Havelis, stables, granaries, and palaces inside that once belonged to Rajput kings. Located within the fort, Chandraprabhu is one of the sanctuaries dedicated to the 8th Tirthankar, symbolized by the moon. Some sculptures within the temple are of Ganesh, the elephant-headed god and son of Shiva show the close ties between Jainism and Hinduism.

After our day spent within the walls of Jaisalmer, enjoy a camel ride into the dunes to experience the spectacular sunset over the desert. Our traditional dinner will feature live music of the region along with colorful folk dancing. (B/L/D)

Day 12

Pokhran Fort, Jeep Safari, tea on the Panchala dunes

We begin with a visit to Pokhran Fort, a 14th-century citadel.

Continue to Khimsar, on the edge of the Great Thar Desert in the heart of rural India. Upon arrival, we will board 4-wheel drive vehicles to travel to nearby villages. Accompanied by a steaming cup of tea, delight in the glorious sunset on the Panchala dunes. Khimsar Fort was begun in 1523 by Rao Karamsji, 8th son of the founder of Jodhpur. Twenty-one generations later, a portion of the fortress is still the residence of that lineage, while the rest has been opened as an elegant hotel, personally overseen by the family. We will spend one night here. (B/L/D)

Day 13

Travel to Pushkar, Jagatpita Temple, Sarafa Bazaar

Our destination today is Pushkar, an important Hindu pilgrimage site. The town encircles a sacred lake that tradition says was created where Brahma dropped a lotus flower. There are a multitude of temples here, and our target is the renowned Jagatpita Temple, one of very few existing temples in India dedicated to the Hindu creator-god Brahma, and it remains the most prominent among them. Topped by a bright crimson spire, the sanctuary is decorated with symbols of swans, the mount of Brahma, and deities of the Hindu pantheon.

Shop at one of Rajasthan's liveliest markets, Sarafa Bazaar. Here, you can find a vast array of hand-embroidered items, precious stones, leather goods, silver jewelry, and all kinds of handicrafts – block printed and tie-and-dye textiles, paintings, carved wood and ivory items, lacquer work, and pottery.

Overnight for one night at the central 3-star Pushkar Palace Heritage Hotel. (B/L/D)

Day 14

Ajmer: Dargah Sharif, Digambar Jain Temple, Akbar Fort & Mughal Museum

Five miles from Pushkar lies another Heritage city, Ajmer, our destination today. This town was a favorite residence of the mighty Mughals and one of India's most important pilgrimage centers for both Hindus and Muslims. Among the many holy sanctuaries here is Dargah Sharif, the shrine of Khwaja Muin-ud-din Chishti, who founded India's Sufi order. Originally from Persia, he devoted his life to the service and welfare of the poor and downtrodden. The saint's tomb is topped by a dazzling white marble dome, and the crypt inside is surrounded by a platform covered with silver. Digambara Jain temple was constructed in the 19th century. The entrance gate is made of imported red sandstone, and the main hall presents a series of large, gilt-covered wooden figures depicting Jain mythology. The first floor houses an astonishing collection of gold plate replicas of every Jain temple in the country. It is estimated that nearly 1000 kg of gold has been used in their creation.

Our last stop will be the Mughal Museum. In 1570, Emperor Akbar constructed an elegant citadel and pleasure retreat of red sandstone that now is a rich storehouse of Mughal and Rajput body armor, other artifacts of the medieval period, and delicate Hindu figurines dating back to the 6th and the 7th centuries.

Continue to Jaipur and overnight for two nights at the Heritage Shahpura House, a regal building painstakingly restored to its original magnificence. Its current owners are descendants of the royal family of Shahpura. (B/L)

Day 15

Jaipur: Albert Hall, City Palace & Sawai Man Singh Museum, Jantar Mantar Observatory, Hawa Mahal

The pink city of Jaipur is the picturesque capital of Rajasthan and a showcase of Rajasthani architecture. Glorious palaces and temples are scattered throughout the town in a variety of styles that span the centuries. Raja Jai Singh, the founder of Jaipur, was no ordinary man. He was a scholar and an astronomer, and in building Jaipur, he gave India its first planned city. High walls enclose the old city, and the seven sections within are laid out in a calculated pattern, as dictated by the Shilpa Shastra, an ancient architectural treatise. Jai Singh created the Jantar Mantar, an open-air royal observatory with gigantic astronomical instruments. It is a UNESCO World Heritage Monument.

Then it's on to the Hawa Mahal, or the Palace of Winds. The lovely five-story façade contains 593 finely screened windows and balconies that enabled the women of the court to watch street processions while remaining in a strict state of purdah. (B/L/D)

Day 16

Amber Fort, City Palace, Flight to Delhi

An early start brings us to the Amber Fort, the former seat of the Rajput rulers of Jaipur and one of the royal fortresses of the Hill Forts of Rajasthan UNESCO World Heritage. As monarchs once did, we will ascend to the fortress seated on the back of an elephant. Fortified by natural hills and high ramparts, Amber's magnificent palace is distinctly Rajput. The walls of the royal apartments are completely covered with intricate mosaics of mirrors and pieces of colored glass. After our exploration, we return to Jaipur and the City Palace, the seat of the Maharaja of Jaipur. Encircled by high walls, the sprawling complex was built in the early 18th century and is a blend of traditional Rajasthani and Mughal architecture. Within one of the exquisite buildings, the Mubarak Mahal is home to the Sawai Man Singh Museum, containing a select collection of various types of Rajasthani dresses, a fascinating armory of Mughal and Rajput weapons, and spectacular swords, some encrusted with jewels and encased in magnificent scabbards. In the center of the compound, with balconies and windows studding its seven-story façade, Chandra Mahal is still the abode of the Jaipur royal family.

Fly to Delhi and, time permitting, visit the Red Fort, or Lal Quila, which was the main residence of the emperors of the Mughal dynasty for nearly 200 years, until 1856. It once housed the legendary Peacock Throne and the Koh-i-Noor diamond that later was stolen by Persian forces. This immense fortress, built out of red sandstone, contains elaborate gardens, the harem, and the palace and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Overnight in the luxurious 5-star Imperial New Delhi, an elegant hotel offering the charm of the British colonial past. (B)

Day 17

Humayun's Tomb, Bangla Sahib Gurudwara Sikh Temple

This morning, we will visit the two most important Mughal sites in Delhi. We also will visit the lovely complex of buildings commissioned by the Mughal Emperor Humayun's wife to house her husband's tomb. Bangla Sahib Gurudwara Sikh Temple, with its golden domes, is one of the most important Sikh places of worship in Delhi. Our final lunch together will be in one of Delhi's fine restaurants. There will be time to rest at the hotel before returning to the airport in the evening for our flights back home. (B/L)

Expectations During Travel

Our trips are designed for flexible, energetic people who like to be active, have a spirit of adventure and a positive attitude. We have designed this trip to be as comfortable as possible, while also aiming to visit some remote or unique sites that other companies do not attempt to include in their itineraries. There may be days where we have very long drives and the conditions of the roads may vary. Hotels and transportation in some remote areas may not be up to western standards. There may be times when no bellhops are available; please pack with the understanding that you need to be able to handle your own luggage at times. Sometimes we may be walking over uneven trails for a mile or more; hiking boots are strongly recommended. Not every meal will be haute cuisine and several lunches may be picnics or box lunches. By maintaining a flexible attitude we will soon be captivated by the beauty of the natural scenery, the hospitality of the local people, and the fascinating sites we will see. Your flexibility and patience will be appreciated.

Air Ticketing

International round trip flights are not included in the cost of the trip. Specialists working at these sites are excited about showing their work to interested enthusiasts. However, please be aware that there may be times when the director or a member of the staff may not be on site when our groups arrive due to other commitments.

Walking and Standing

Far Horizons expects all participants to be physically active and able to walk and climb independently throughout the full touring days. This includes walking over uneven terrain (uphill and downhill) for 2 miles or more at each site. You should expect to be on your feet for much of each day, averaging as much as 5 miles of walking per day. As such, each participant should be able to walk unaided at a pace of 3 miles per hour for at least an hour at a time, and to stand unsupported for at least 60 minutes. Bearing this in mind, we suggest that, if you have not already done so, you begin walking several miles every day, ideally including stairs and hills. If you have questions about your ability to keep up with the group or the strenuous nature of this trip, please contact the Far Horizons staff.
