Discover the Swahili Coast

Embark on an extraordinary 16-day journey along the Swahili Coast, where the ebb and flow of trade winds have carried merchants, conquerors, and cultures for over a millennium. From the 8th century, when Arab and Persian traders first established settlements on the East African coast, to the arrival of Portuguese explorers in the 15th century, and through the era of Omani sultanates, this narrow coastline has been a crucible of cultural exchange. Our expedition will take you from the winding alleys of Lamu, a town that has remained largely unchanged since the 18th century, to the imposing ruins of Kilwa Kisiwani, once described by Ibn Battuta as “one of the most beautiful and well-constructed cities in the world.”

The Swahili Coast’s strategic location made it a vital link in the Indian Ocean trade network, connecting the African interior with Arabia, Persia, India, and China. Traders bringing gold from Zimbabwe, ivory from the Congo, and slaves from the continental interior flowed through Swahili ports, returning with porcelain, silk, and spices.

This commerce gave rise to a unique Swahili culture, a sophisticated blend of African and Asian influences reflected in everything from language and cuisine to architecture and art. Our journey will reveal this cultural tapestry, from the intricately carved doorways of Mombasa’s Old Town to the haunting ruins of Gede, abandoned in the 17th century for reasons that remain a mystery.

As we traverse the coast from Kenya to Tanzania, we’ll witness the enduring legacy of this remarkable civilization. We’ll explore Lamu, where traditional dhows still ply the waters and donkeys remain the primary mode of transport. In Zanzibar, we’ll wander through Stone Town’s labyrinth of alleys, where the air is heavy with the scent of cloves, and the shadows of the slave trade still linger. Our journey culminates in Kilwa Kisiwani, the medieval powerhouse that once controlled much of the East African gold trade. Throughout our expedition, the expertise of Dr. Stephanie Wynne-Jones will bring to life the stories written in stone and sand, offering insights into ongoing archaeological discoveries that continue to reshape our understanding of this fascinating region.

Daily Itinerary

Day 1

Arrive in Nairobi

Arrive to Nairobi, Kenya's capital and largest city. Founded in 1899 as a rail depot on the Uganda Railway, Nairobi grew to become the capital of British East Africa in 1907. Today, it's a bustling metropolis that serves as the gateway to our Swahili Coast adventure. Enjoy a visit to the National Museum of Kenya before transferring to the Radisson Blu, Nairobi Upper Hill, our home the night. Enjoy a welcome dinner with your fellow travel companions. (D)

Day 2

Flight to Lamu. Local Cooking Class

Morning flight to Lamu, an island that has been a significant Swahili settlement since the 14th century. Afternoon and lunch at leisure to settle in and get a first glimpse of this enchanting island, where donkeys remain the primary mode of transport. Join the Shela Women's Association for an enriching Samosa Making Class, where you'll delve into the art of crafting this traditional delicacy while exploring the cultural and historical significance behind each ingredient and technique. Dinner at the hotel. Overnight at The Majlis Resort, Lamu for three nights. (B/L/D)

Day 3

Excursion to Lamu Town. Takwa Ruins

Full-day exploration of Lamu Town, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Wander through the narrow streets, visiting the Lamu Museum housed in a traditional Swahili townhouse. The museum showcases Swahili culture and the town's seafaring history. We'll also see the impressive Riyadhha Mosque, built in 1900, which has been a center for Islamic scholarship in East Africa.

In the afternoon, take a boat to Manda Island to visit the evocative ruins of Takwa, a 16th-century Swahili settlement abandoned in the 17th-century due to lack of fresh water. (B/L/D)

Day 4

Pate Island

Today we'll take a boat trip to Pate Island, home to some of the earliest and most important Swahili settlements. We'll visit the ruins of Shanga, where Chinese porcelain dated to 760 AD provides evidence of early Indian Ocean trade. We'll also explore the current town of Pate, once a rival to Lamu and Mombasa, where traditional Swahili culture is still very much alive. Dr. Wynne-Jones will discuss the archaeological evidence for the development of Swahili culture. (B/L/D)

Day 5

Flight to Mombasa

A morning flight takes us to Mombasa, first mentioned by name by the 12th-century Arab geographer Al Idrisi, and a major Swahili city-state before becoming a Portuguese stronghold in the 16th century. Transfer upon arrival to Watamu with the afternoon at leisure to enjoy the beautiful beach or relax by the pool at our hotel in Watamu. Overnight at Hemingways Watamu for two nights. (B/L/D)

Day 6

Gede Ruins. Malindi Town

Morning visit to the ruins of Gedi, a mysterious abandoned city hidden in a lush coastal forest. This prosperous town, which flourished from the 13th to 17th centuries, was inexplicably deserted, leaving behind impressive ruins including a palace, mosques, and houses. In the afternoon, we'll explore Malindi Town, an important historical port that hosted Vasco da Gama in 1498, marking the beginning of Portuguese influence on the Swahili Coast. (B/L/D)

Day 7

Transfer to Mombasa

Return to Mombasa and enjoy an afternoon visit to Nguuni Nature Sanctuary, where we can observe giraffes, ostriches, and other wildlife against the backdrop of baobab trees. This sanctuary offers a glimpse into the diverse ecosystems that have shaped life on the Swahili Coast for millennia. Overnight at the Serena Beach Resort & Spa, Mombasa for two nights. (B/L/D)

Day 8

Fort Jesus. Jumba la Mtwana. Tour Old Town

Morning visit to Fort Jesus, a 16th-century Portuguese fort and museum that bears testimony to the long European presence on the Swahili Coast. Built between 1593 and 1596, the fort's architecture reflects Renaissance military design. We'll also explore the ruins of Jumba la Mtwana, a 14th-century Swahili town whose name means "the large house of the slave," providing insight into the Indian Ocean slave trade. In the afternoon, we'll wander through Mombasa's atmospheric Old Town, with its narrow alleys and intricately carved doorways reflecting centuries of multicultural influence. (B/L/D)

Day 9

Zanzibar

A flight to Zanzibar, the “Spice Island,” once the world’s largest producer of cloves and a key player in the Indian Ocean slave trade. Enjoy an evening lecture by Dr. Wynne-Jones on Zanzibar’s role in Indian Ocean trade networks. Overnight at Kisiwa House, Zanzibar for two nights. (B/ L/D)

Day 10

Stone Town, Persian Baths, Prison Island

Full day in Stone Town, another UNESCO World Heritage site. We’ll visit the former slave market and the Anglican Cathedral built on its site, a powerful reminder of Zanzibar’s history. We’ll explore the Old Fort, built by Omani Arabs in the 17th century, and the House of Wonders, a 19th-century sultan’s palace. Our “spice tour” will connect us to the trade that made Zanzibar famous. We’ll also visit the late 19th-century Hamamni Persian Baths. In the afternoon, we’ll take a boat trip to Prison Island to see giant tortoises and the old quarantine station. Dinner is on our own. (B/L)

Day 11

Flight to Dar es Salaam. Drive to Kilwa

Morning flight to Dar es Salaam, followed by a scenic drive to Kilwa. Dar es Salaam, whose name means “Haven of Peace” in Arabic, was founded in the 1860s by the Omani Sultan of Zanzibar. Evening at leisure with a lecture by Dr. Wynne-Jones on the rise and fall of Kilwa. Overnight at Kilwa Pakaya Hotel for three nights. (B/L/D)

Day 12

Kilwa Kisiwani Ruins

Enjoy the first of two full days exploring the ruins of Kilwa Kisiwani. Once described by Ibn Battuta as “one of the most beautiful and well-constructed cities in the world,” Kilwa controlled much of the gold trade with Sofala in present-day Mozambique. We’ll visit the Great Mosque, begun in the 11th century and substantially expanded in the 14th century, once the largest mosque in sub-Saharan Africa. After lunch, explore the vast palace complex known as Husuni Kubwa. Dr. Wynne-Jones will provide insights into the latest archaeological findings from this important site. (B/L/D)

Day 13

Songo Mnara Ruins

Today we continue our explorations of Kilwa Kisiwani, including the smaller mosques, the fort, and the extensive cemeteries. We’ll discuss Kilwa’s role in the wider Indian Ocean trade networks and its connections to the African interior. The day will conclude with a summary discussion led by Dr. Wynne-Jones on the significance of Kilwa in Swahili and world history. (B/L/D)

Day 14

Transfer to Dar es Salaam

Return to Dar es Salaam, reflecting on our journey along the Swahili Coast. Evening at leisure. Farewell dinner where we'll discuss how our perceptions of East African history and culture have been transformed by our experiences. Overnight at Four Points by Sheraton, Dar es Salaam. (B/L/D)

Day 15

Depart Kenya

Transfer to Dar es Salaam International Airport for flights home, carrying with us a deeper understanding of the Swahili Coast's rich history and enduring cultural legacy OR continue on our post-trip safari extension. (B)

PLEASE NOTE: Occasionally, due to circumstances beyond our control, itinerary changes may occur. We appreciate your understanding and flexibility should this be necessary

Upon registering for the tour, the purchase of travel protection with both trip cancellation and emergency evacuation is strongly advised. Links to recommended insurance policies will be included in the email you receive confirming receipt of your deposit.

Expectations During Travel

This tour is designed for flexible, energetic people who like to be active, have a spirit of adventure and a positive attitude. We have designed this trip to be as comfortable as possible, while also aiming to visit some remote or unique sites that other companies do not attempt to include in their itineraries. There may be days where we have very long drives and the conditions of the roads may vary. Hotels and transportation in some remote areas may not be up to western standards. There may be times when no bellhops are available; please pack with the understanding that you need to be able to handle your own luggage at times. Sometimes we may be walking over uneven trails for a mile or more; hiking boots are strongly recommended. Not every meal will be haute cuisine and several lunches may be picnics or box lunches. By maintaining a flexible attitude we will soon be captivated by the beauty of the natural scenery, the hospitality of the local people, and the fascinating sites we will see. Your flexibility and patience will be appreciated.

Air Ticketing

International round trip flights are not included in the cost of the trip. If Far Horizons must change the trip dates or cancel the trip for any reason, Far Horizons is not responsible for any air ticket you may have purchased. Please send your complete air schedule as soon as you have it. NOTE: Please contact Far Horizons if you would like for us to handle your air ticketing.

Private Tours and Talks

The private tours of archaeological sites and talks by specialists are scheduled in advance and include a donation to each. Specialists working at these sites are excited about showing their work to interested enthusiasts. However, please be aware that there may be times when the director or a member of the staff may not be on site when our groups arrive due to other commitments.

Walking and Standing

Far Horizons expects all participants to be physically active and able to walk and climb independently throughout the full touring days. This includes walking over uneven terrain (uphill and downhill) for 2 miles or more at each site. You should expect to be on your feet for much of each day, averaging as much as 5 miles of walking per day. As such, each participant should be able to walk unaided at a pace of 3 miles per hour for at least an hour at a time, and to stand unsupported for at least 60 minutes. Bearing this in mind, we suggest that, if you have not already done so, you begin walking several miles every day, ideally including stairs and hills. If you have questions about your ability to keep up with the group or the strenuous nature of this trip, please contact the Far Horizons staff.

Travel Insurance

We strongly recommend that you consider purchasing travel insurance. Should illness or an unforeseen event force you to cancel your travel plans after your final payment or during your trip, it would be doubly unfortunate to incur a significant financial loss. Trip cancellation protection will enable you to be reimbursed for the loss of your payment if you are unable to travel for any of the covered reasons in the "Outline of Coverage" section, or should you have an accident or suffer from any medical conditions during the trip.

Far Horizons offers customized protection plans through Travel Insured International (a Crum & Forster Company) with the following benefits:

- Trip Cancellation and Trip Interruption for covered reasons
- Trip Delay
- Baggage Loss and Baggage Delay
- Emergency Medical Expenses and Emergency Medical Evacuation
- 24-Hour Accidental Death & Dismemberment
- 24-Hour Travel Assistance & Concierge Services
- Option to upgrade to 'Cancel for Any Reason (CFAR)

We recommend reviewing the language in detail so you are aware of specific parameters; Depending on the policy, to waive the Pre-Existing Medical Condition Exclusion or to upgrade to CFAR coverage, the plan must be purchased within 14 to 21 days of the initial trip deposit, full trip cost must be insured, and traveler is medically fit at time of plan purchase. Otherwise, coverage may be purchased at any time prior to departure.

For specific questions regarding the Worldwide Protector Plan, please contact Travel Insured International's Customer Care Center at 1-800-243-3174 or by email at customercare@travelinsured.com, and refer to Far Horizons' account number: 54070.

Itinerary Changes

Changes in our itinerary, accommodations, and transportation schedules may occur. While we are committed to keeping as close to the published details as possible, sometimes it is simply not possible. Weather events, government affairs, or other factors out of our control sometimes come into play. A good book to read as well as patience, flexible attitude, and a sense of humor are essential.

Meet Your Study Leader...

Dr. Stephanie Wynne - Jones

Stephanie Wynne-Jones is a specialist in the archaeology of eastern Africa, particularly the Swahili coast. She directed excavations at sites across Kenya, Tanzania and Mozambique. Her Ph.D. from the University of Cambridge was based on work around Kilwa in southern Tanzania.

She is a Professor of African Archaeology at the University of York, where she teaches on all aspects of African archaeology and heritage. She also teaches in the Centre for Medieval Studies, exploring the Global Middle Ages and Islamic worlds.

She has published widely on all aspects of the Swahili coast and her work there, including books on The Swahili World and A Material Culture.

Professor Wynne-Jones' knowledge of the area and passion for the subject make her an ideal trip leader, exploring sites, many of which she has excavated herself.
